Chandler Not Likely to Join Wallace

By SY RAMSEY
Associated Press Writer
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The probability that A. B. "Happy" Chandler would run for vice president with George C. Wallace faded today amid hints that Chandler's civil rights record is a major obstacle.

Chandler, a 70-year-old two-time Kentucky governor and former U.S. Senator, did not board a train Monday that would have taken him to Washington in time for a scheduled Wallace news conference.

Wallace, meanwhile, battled a cold at his Montgomery, Ala., home and canceled the affair. Aides declined to say whether ill health prompted it.

"Temporarily, at least, it's off," Chandler said. "I don't know if it'll ever be on again—that remains to be seen."

But it was learned that three aides of the independent presidential candidate flew to Kentucky Monday, went to Chandler's home at nearby Versailles and held apparently futile discussions on unspecified topics.

Pacifists Taken Into Custody

NAGASAKI, Japan (AP) — Officials of the Maritime Safety Agency said today they have taken into custody American pacifist Der. Earle Reynolds and his Japanese wife after they sailed their 30-ton yacht Phoenix out of Japanese territorial waters for Communist China.

Customs officials said Akie, 26-year-old wife of Dr. Reynolds of Yellow Springs, Ohio, would be questioned on charges of illegal departure because they said she did not carry a passport.

Spokesmen said a safety agency patrol boat trailed the Phoenix and repeatedly warned the yacht not to sail out of Japanese territorial waters.

Reynolds, they said, violated Japanese law because he knowingly assisted his wife in illegally leaving Japan.

Officials said his wife could not be issued a passport for her trip because she has not received entry approval from Communist China.

The first Labor Day was observed in New York on Sept. 5, 1882.

of the Supreme Court," Griffin cited specifically a magazine article which said that after Richard Goodwin, then a White House aide, worked on Johnson's 1966 State of the Union speech it was turned over to Fortas and Clark M. Clifford "who began chopping it up."

Griffin suggested the committee call Goodwin and Clifford, now secretary of defense.

He also suggested members of the Senate Appropriations Committee might be questioned on a report that Fortas helped draft an amendment to a bill providing Secret Service protection for all presidential candidates.

Fortas acknowledged during his own testimony before the committee in July that he had participated in White House conferences on Vietnam and on the 1967 riots in Detroit.

He said, however, that his role was limited to summarizing the statements of others for the President.

Mansfield, arguing that the committee owes Johnson the courtesy of a vote on Fortas, said the matters raised by Griffin "would be well brought up on the floor."

In a related development, an Associated Press survey of the Senate showed 46 members saying they would vote for Fortas' confirmation if it were brought to the floor now, 26 saying they were opposed, and 23 uncommitted.

Four senators could not be reached.

One of those listed against in the AP survey is Virginia Democrat Harry F. Byrd Jr. who told the Senate in a speech Monday that if he were to vote for Fortas, "I would be placing my stamp of approval on the extreme leftist trend of the Warren court, a trend to which Mr. Justice Fortas apparently has dedicated himself."

A majority of the 100 members is necessary to confirm. But a two-thirds vote would be needed to shut off the filibuster threatened by opponents.

No Plans to Counterattack Sen. McCarthy

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is pictured by aides as having no plans to counter any antiwar campaigning by his defeated rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

As the man who gave the anti-Vietnam war movement an impetus late last year by announcing he would oppose President Johnson for renomination, McCarthy said in Chicago that he could not support either Humphrey or GOP nominee Richard M. Nixon. Instead, he said he would campaign for senatorial candidates who share his criticisms of Vietnam war policies.

He also is expected to try to help House members seeking election as antiwar candidates.

Humphrey, who backs Johnson's policies except for minor variations, was said to have no intentions to fight McCarthy's efforts.

The vice president's attitude, as reported by his staff members, is that if McCarthy can help elect Democrats to the Senate and House, well and good.

How much campaigning the presidential nominee will do with and for such candidates apparently will depend on the desires of the latter.

If they want to come aboard with him before or after making rounds with McCarthy, Humphrey's aides think they will be welcomed as examples of the vice president's thesis that the Democratic party is big enough to shelter men with divergent opinions.

Counterthrust Suggested in Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — President Rene Barrientos ordered Monday night that the state school system be shut down for the two remaining months of the school year in a drastic counterthrust at 25,000 striking teachers.

Barrientos made the announcement in a brief nationwide radio message in which he said the strike had opened the way for "anarchistic and Castroite subversion." The teachers walked off the job a week ago demanding higher wages.

Last week, Barrientos said that all teachers who joined the walkout would lose their jobs. He said Monday night the government would begin a search for new teachers to take the place of the strikers for the next school year.

He said the steps were taken to head off street disturbances planned by "certain sectors" of Bolivian society. He did not elaborate. He added that the measures would also "put an end to anarchism and politics in education."

Quick Action on Nuclear Treaty Urged

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in the first real testing of congressional will since the Soviet Union invaded Czechoslovakia, was urged today to take quick action on a treaty aimed at curbing the spread of nuclear weapons.

The plea was made by committee member Albert Gore, D-Tenn., in a statement prepared for a committee meeting.

It marked the first attempt to dislodge the nuclear nonproliferation treaty from the committee since Congress reconvened last week following a month recess.

President Johnson asked for swift action when he submitted the treaty to the Senate July 9. He has continued to press for approval despite a marked lessening of congressional support since the Czech invasion and other Russian troop moves in East Europe.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has raised the possibility the treaty might be put over until next year.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk renewed the administration plea before the committee Monday. He said U.S. action could have a major impact on what the remaining countries decide about signing the treaty.

Nearly 80 nations—including this country and the Soviet Union—have signed it but a two-thirds vote of approval in the Senate is needed before U.S. agreement becomes final.

The treaty would pledge nuclear nations signing it not to provide nuclear weapons—or the know-how to make them—to countries that do not now have them. Provision is made for sharing information on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Gore said the United States and Russia shared a common interest: "We and they, as the strongest nations of the world, have the most to lose from a nuclear exchange."

Gore said that at no time had he backed the agreement "on any mistaken belief that Soviet adherence to the treaty indicated Soviet Communism had abandoned its aggressive designs."

Giraffe Taken Into Custody

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police in suburban Plymouth Township took a giraffe into custody Monday. They also apprehended an ostrich, 50 goats, ducklings, goslings, chicks, rabbits and bantam roosters.

The animals, belonging to the Petting Zoo, an attraction for children, escaped from an open trailer.

Policemen William Knoebel and Robert Marinelli rounded up all of the escapees easily, with the exception of the giraffe.

They finally found him in a nearby parking lot for state police repair trucks. He came along quietly.

$10 Million Year for Education

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A two-year budget submitted Monday by the state Board of Education calls for $10 million a year raises in each of the next two years.

The budget, involving only state funds, comes to $241,699,724, and is based on an anticipated tax increase. The board asked for increases in nearly all operations for which it is responsible.

Instead of the $82,330,515 budgeted for teachers salaries this year, which includes the second installment of the $500 teacher salary raises voted last year, the new budget recommends $92,550,151 next year and $102,550,151 the second year of the 1969-70 biennium.

The textbook aid allocation would be raised from the current $1.5 million to $1.8 million next year and $2 million in 1970. Transportation aid would be raised from the present $7,100,714 to $8,875,000 over the two year period.

State contribution to Teacher Retirement Program would be raised from $7.7 million to $8.3 million next year and to $8.9 million in the second year.

Education Department salaries would be raised in most categories in line with the new job classification system devised by the State Administration Department.

The budget request will be submitted to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller for review. The Legislative Council will open budget hearings next month in preparation for the 1969 General Assembly.

Muskie Meets With Sen. Fulbright

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie paused Monday in his Democratic vice presidential campaign for a private meeting with Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., one of the party's strongest critics of the Vietnam war.

Muskie and Fulbright did not appear in public together. No statement was issued following their meeting and a dinner they attended with several state Democratic leaders.

Newsmen glimpsed the two senators together only once, inside a hotel garage where Fulbright, who did not meet Muskie's campaign plane, greeted his Maine colleague.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television—RadioWriter
NEW YORK (AP) — Network television's thrifty device, putting together a clutch of unsold pilot shows to form a summer series, has a number of advantages.

It provides some fresh material for time spots in which the management has decided to skip reruns. It permits the producer of a series that failed to find a network niche a chance to recoup at least some of the money he spent making the demonstration program.

Finally, it often permits the viewer to get a look at a sample of some shows that might have become a part of his weekly television habit. Such was Monday night's program on CBS' "Premiere" series, a series of assorted hour-long programs that gave "The Carol Burnett Show" a summer vacation.

The hour was called "Higher and Higher," and was, quite obviously, the pilot program for a series that months ago was high on the network's list for the 1968-69 season. If the programmers had known then as they know now about the complaints of TV violence, "Higher and Higher" might well have been one of the new series making its debut later this month.

It was not a violent show although it opened with a homicide and a private eye was slugged with a gun butt. Essentially, it was an old fashioned whodunit somewhere between "Perry Mason" and "Mr. and Mrs. North."

There was a last will and testament, a secret room with a skeleton, courtroom scenes and a last minute unveiling of the killer—killers, really, although it wasn't the butler, but the housemaid.

The leading players were a husband and wife lawyer team, Mr. and Mrs. Higher. Mr. Higher did the legal stuff and detecting while Mrs. Higher played for the comedy relief.

Occasionally the plot was difficult to follow, but nowhere near as difficult as the half-hour special program that preceded it on ABC. This little fantasy, called "What Gap?" was filmed

It obviously misfired somewhere. There was Wally Cox with a pretty hippie on a dream-like motorcycle tour of the city. They dressed Wally in funny wigs and beards and in hippie clothes. About the only portion that came off well was a satiric cocktail party in which the women, in normal clothes, discussed baseball and the stock market while the men, in hippie dress, chatted about clothes.

The show seems to have been on the network shelf for awhile—a little too long since it seemed stale and almost outdated.

O.K. girls . . . we might as well get with it. We have a couple of new images. Really, Pat Nixon and Muriel Humphrey are not new, but from now on we will know them so intimately, we will feel we are seeing them for the first time. What they wear from the skin out, the hair styles, the cosmetics, jewelry, furs, shoes . . . yes, even the shade of stockings will all be publicized.

Already we find they both like clothes although they do not make an issue of it. Muriel Humphrey, who used to make her own, is now buying them off the racks. And Pat Nixon always did favor simple, casual dresses and lots of suits. It will be fun to watch them both from now on out.

And it is fun to see the new Fall styles. As you know, we have been with this for years on end but every season is a brand new one to us and we simply love the trying on of what's new.

For instance, a simple acetate-backed, all wool jersey dress in bright orange or blue (comes in brown and grey, too) worn with your new casual shoes and the darker shade of panty hose . . . changed from one day to another by wearing a different scarf or a hunk of those chains . . . the dress is priced between $25.00 and $30.00.

The accessories are inexpensive and your colleagues will see a NEW YOU!

We would like to show you the MARCO POLO imported knits that have all the interesting features of the more expensive knits, in gay colors, full-fashioned and priced at only $50.00. We promise you will like them.

And now it is time to practice what we preach and here we go back to work. We hope to be seeing you at

Incident in Chicago to Be Probed

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal grand jury investigation of demonstrations, police action and news coverage during the Democratic National Convention has been ordered by Chief Judge William J. Campbell of U.S. District Court.

Judge Campbell on Monday ordered the September grand jury to investigate alleged violations of federal statutes during the convention.

Thomas A. Foran, U.S. district attorney, already had started an investigation, and Judge Campbell ordered him to turn over to the grand jury all information he has accumulated thus far.

"Only the federal grand jury has the total responsibility under our Constitution to hold such a probe," Judge Campbell told the jurors.

"Purely on the information I have read in the press, I find that various people are accused of interstate conspiracy to promote a riot in violation of federal law," he said.

"A second category of charges has been made whereby police officers are accused of violating civil rights of demonstrators in performing duties in quelling riots and returning order," Campbell added.

He said the investigation also would look into possible violation of the federal communications statute by some television networks which he said were accused of engaging in interstate conspiracy to unduly influence the convention by television.

The jury also was directed to investigate charges that a television network, NBC, bugged a closed hearing of the Democratic convention platform committee.

In another development, Mayor Richard J. Daley announced that a one-hour television show prepared to present what he termed "a balance portrayal" of events during the convention will be shown at 9 p.m. Sept. 15.

He said the filmed program will be carried by 47 television stations around the country, including those of Matromedia and WGN Continental Networks and a number of independent stations.

A radio show also is being prepared.

Commenting for the first time on a report issued by his office Friday on the convention week disturbances, Daley again defended police action in handling antiwar demonstrators.

"I have said that any overreaction by the police department is being investigated, thoroughly investigated," he said at a news conference. "But I would be the first to defend them to the end. The comment that all our policemen acted this way is not true."

Daley said the greatest misunderstanding during the convention was "the failure of the news media to tell the American people what actually happened during the days of the convention."

He restated earlier accusations that the media exaggerated the amount of force used by police while ignoring the provocations to which policemen were subjected by the demonstrators.

The provocations, he said, included filthy epithets and a variety of thrown objects, including human excrement.

Sunday.

The organization is, according to its president, Norman Polk of Warren, the first state branch of a fledgling national organization headed by Dr. Mitchell Young of Texarkana.

Young said the organization has four purposes:

- To oppose federal control of education.
- To support local control of schools.
- To support neighborhood schools.

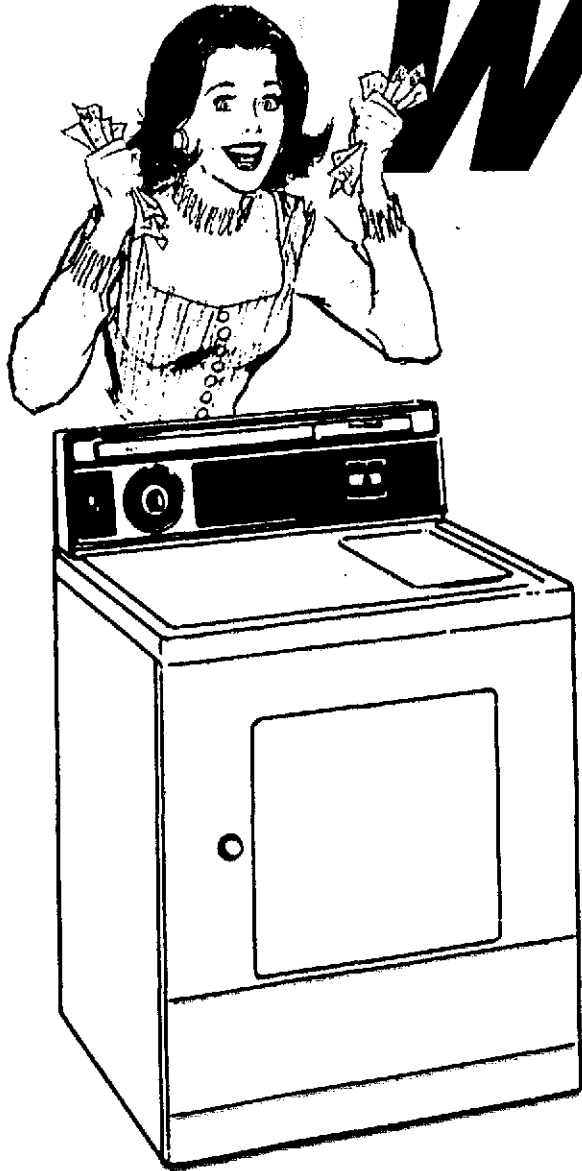

"We feel the majority of the people believe in these points," Young said, "and if we get enough to stand up we believe we can influence Congress."

"We are not opposed to integration by freedom of choice," he said. "We have a number of Negroes in the organization. It doesn't have anything to do with race. It has to do with control of people."

Ashe New Tennis Titan of World

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Arthur Ashe Jr., is the new titan of international tennis, but he's still not happy.

He has, he says, two more outstanding goals. He wants to help the United States get back the Davis Cup from Australia. And he wants to find his proper place in the seething black power struggle.

"I won't be satisfied until we get back the Davis Cup," the 25-year-old Army lieutenant from Richmond, Va., said today, still receiving congratulations for his stirring 14-12, 5-7, 6-3, 3-6, 3-1 victory over young Tom Okker of The Netherlands for the men's singles crown in the U.S. Open Championships.

The skinny Negro not only extended his winning streak of matches to 26—dating back to last July—but he added the open to his national amateur crown won two weeks ago at Brookline, Mass., and scored a double slam that may not be duplicated for years.

He automatically became a strong candidate for No. 1 world ranking among both amateurs and professionals.

After hitting the final stroke that made his champion of a star-spangled field that included such stars as Rod Laver, Tony Roche, Pancho Gonzales and Ken Rosewall, Ashe immediately subordinated his own interests to his future goals.

"While I've been winning here, the Australians have been running, jumping and hitting two-on-one," he said, referring to a favorite tactic of Aussie Capt. Harry Hopman in putting two men against one in practice. "They're getting ready for us—we've got to get back that cup."

Ashe and the man he had to beat in the semifinals, Clark Graebner, head the team that will invade Adelaide, Australia, at Christmas time for the Davis Cup challenge round—granting the Yanks get by their last hurdle, the interzone final.

"I think we're sure to make it and we should win the cup," said Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md., the Davis Cup captain. "Ashe was the best player in the world this week. Graebner played great tennis. Our doubles teams have been outstanding. All odds, for once, are on our side."

The Aussies, their strength piled by pro rivals, will try to defend with Bill Bowrey and Ray Ruffies, two outsiders who did not compete here. The United States next must play the winner of the series involving India, Japan and West Germany.

The United States has one of its doubles teams, Stan Smith and Bobby Lutz of Pasadena, Calif., already in the finals of the U.S. Open and another, Graebner and Charlie Pasarell, leading Ashe and Spain's Andres Gimeno 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 12-12. The unfinished doubles are scheduled this morning.

The women's doubles were won by amateurs Margaret Court Smith of Australia and Maria Bueno of Brazil, who upset top-seeded pros Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., and Rosemary Casals of San Francisco 4-6, 9-7, 8-6.

Arthur, a quiet, mild-mannered youngster, frail of frame, attended UCLA on scholarship, won the national collegiate title and championships on clay, hard courts and grass and became America's top Davis Cup ace.

But he never felt—because of his color—that he was ever really accepted.

"I am more at ease in Europe than in this country," he said, "I am treated better everywhere than here."

He said that now he has won world recognition for his tennis, he feels an obligation to help his race in their current black power structure.

Coaches and Team Look to Prescott

By RALPH ROUNTON

Junior Gary Hollis picked up a Camden fumble and rambled 25 yards for the game's only touchdown as the Hope "B" team downed the Camden reserves 8-6 last night in Camden.

The "B" Lizards took advantage of covering five Camden fumbles to maintain field position throughout the game.

Making the difference on the scoreboard was a second-quarter safety when several locals trapped a Camden reverse in the end zone.

At halftime the "B" Lizards led 8-0, and Camden's only score came late in the game as Hope was substituting freely.

Sophomore Jones led the tackle charts with 15, followed closely by Mike McQueen's ten tackles. Leading rusher was Danny Putman with 10 for 55 yards.

Coach Jim Jordan was very satisfied with the team's performance, and he singled out QB Ronnie Massanelli for calling a good game.

On Massanelli, Jordan commented that "he did a fine job on plays from the sideline, and directed the team on numerous long drives that were stopped by penalties."

Next Monday night the "B" Lizards play host to the Magnolia jayvees at Hammons Stadium.

Admirably, the Hope High coaching staff offered no excuses for the opening defeat to Ashdown, but as could be expected they are ready to forget about it.

One possible asset that could come out of the loss is the realization that the Bobcats still have a long way to go, but their spurs of good play show their ability.

The team is carrying the right attitude into the week's prep work, and they have a strong will to win against Prescott Friday night.

Only 14 players worked out in full practice session yesterday, as the rest of the squad took off for the "B" game in Camden last night. Those 14 were all leaders and starters, though, and they got a lot done in the small group. This afternoon the full team resumes practicing.

The rest of the opponents on Hope's schedule did about as expected last weekend, excepting Magnolia's upset 12-0 loss to the Hot Springs Trojans. Smackover proved that they won't have very much, barely squirming by Class B Norphlet 6-0.

Camden's Panthers, picked in last Friday's football edition as the leading darkhorse in 4-AA East, proved that prediction to be well-founded with a surprising 40-12 trouncing of cross-town Lincoln of the Western Division. El Dorado Washington showed that they could be tough in 4-AA East, holding its own against AAA El Dorado High before dropping a well-played 14-0 decision.

Defending champ Fairview tuned up for Friday night's showdown with Camden by crushing Texarkana Washington 27-0 in a divisional contest. The Cardinals play Camden High in CHS' Coleman Stadium, and that large stadium should be well-filled for the battle.

In the only other divisional game, the highly-rated Magnolia Panthers had their problems before grinding out a 13-0 win over the Warren Lumberjacks in Warren. The Crossett Eagles also fought hard before subduing Eudora 12-0 in a non-conference game. Arkadelphia took the week off.

Those persistent Nashville Scrappers are going to show once again in '68 that nothing can hold them down. Facing the toughest team ever to come out of Dierks, the Scrappers found a great replacement for All-Stater James Turley in sophomore Alan Ray at quarterback, and Nashville simply won it 63-13.

And don't think Scrappier Head Coach Joe Goodrum rolled up the score. He had to pull his regulars at halftime, already leading 35-7. One of these days Nashville might have a losing season, but it sure won't be any time in the near future. Their football program is, in a word, loaded. With a soph and junior dominated squad this year, the Scrappers are gonna be bad news to District 7-A. This Friday night they open district play against Ashdown, the Bobcat conquerors.

Tomorrow the 4-AA statistical report and standings should be in from 4-AA statistician James Bechtelheimer of Camden. It will be interesting to see how Hope rates on the charts after one week of play.

Coach Gaylord Solomon's Bobkittens open their seven-game slate at Prescott with the Curley Cubs on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. The team will play five games at home and two on the road in '68.

Dodgers Wallop Cardinals

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
George Stone welcomed cousin Cecil Upshaw with open arms and Upshaw turned out to be the perfect relative. But not everyone has such relations.

Larry Jaster, for example, usually has a smashing time with his Los Angeles Dodgers cousins, but when he put out his arms to them Monday night, they kicked him out of his own house.

Everyone was barely seated in Busch Memorial Stadium when the normally quiet Dodgers drove Jaster out with eight runs in the second inning, and went on to wipe out the St. Louis Cardinals 10-1.

It was only their second victory in nine decisions against Jaster, who shut them out a record five straight times in 1966.

But for Stone and Upshaw... well, they had as good a time as they did last Monday when Upshaw came in and saved a victory for Stone and the Atlanta Braves.

This time, the Braves beat San Francisco 2-1 as Upshaw rescued Stone by putting out two unwelcome hitters in the ninth inning.

Elsewhere in the National League, Clay Dalrymple's two-run single sent Pittsburgh away mad as Philadelphia topped the Pirates 8-7 in 15 innings.

Houston was rained out of a two-light doubleheader at Cincinnati in the only other games scheduled. The Astros led 3-0 after four innings when the rains came.

In the American League, Washington slugged Baltimore 6-2, Cleveland beat Minnesota 6-1, Detroit defeated California 6-0 and Boston edged Oakland 6-4 in 10 innings.

Rookie Bill Sudakis, who wasn't around when Jaster was having his laughs with the Dodgers, was the rudest Dodger, turning the game into a rout after Jaster was gone. He climaxed the big noise in the second with the first grand slam homer of his career, off reliever Dick Hughes.

With Jaster still around, Paul Popovich had singled home two runs and Wes Parker doubled for two more.

Taking advantage of all this was Don Sutton, who cut down the Cardinals on six hits to turn his record to 8-14. Jaster, who was 2-0 against the Dodgers this season, fell to 9-12.

The victory was the sixth in seven starts for Los Angeles and helped them past the idle New York Mets and out of the league cellar. The loss, on the other hand, was not all that bad for St. Louis, which still lowered its magic number for clinching the pennant to six as the second place Giants lost.

Rookie Stone took care of the Giants with a four-hitter until he welcomed Upshaw with three arm with one out and one on in the ninth inning. Upshaw responded by striking out Jim Hart and Dick Dietz, and Stone had his sixth victory against three losses.

Joe Torre singled home Atlanta's first run in the opening inning and another scored on a double play in the second, offsetting Willie Mays' 19th homer in the fourth.

Dalrymple gave the boot to Pittsburgh after reliever Bruce Dal Canton opened the door by walking the bases loaded.

The Pirates almost got back in when Chris Cannizzaro tripped in a run in the last of the 15th, but Chris Short struck out Maury Wills for the final out.

Pittsburgh had tied the game with four runs in the ninth on four walks, a passed ball and Roberto Clemente's two-run single.

Foster Says He'll Fight Anyone

WASHINGTON (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Bobby Foster is willing to fight anyone who'll pay to get into the ring with him, Roger Rouse has learned it is a costly experience.

Foster carved rivers of blood on the face of the well-regarded challenger and stopped him on a technical knockout at 2:34 of the fifth round in their nontitle fight Monday night.

It was the third exhibition victory in six weeks for the lean and mean Foster, who is collecting as many paydays as possible with his new crown while waiting for a challenger willing to give him the $100,000 guarantee he demands for attitude bouts.

HOUSTON (AP) — Flanker back Ode Burrell of the Oilers suffered a broken ankle in the waning seconds of the game against the Kansas City Chiefs Monday night and will be lost to Houston for the rest of the American Football League season.

Tiant Hurls Twins to Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Chalk up one more strike for Minnesota's G-Whiz Kid... and put the rest on Luis Tiant's side of the tally sheet.

Tiant struck out 16 Minnesota batters Monday night at Crossett, and breezed to his 20th victory of the season as the Cleveland Indians trimmed the Twins 6-1.

One of the Twins' five hits off the husky right-hander was a home run by Graig Nettles... the rookie outfielder's fifth in four games.

Tiant, who has lost nine, became the fifth 20-game winner in the majors and climbed within five strikeouts of teammate Sam McDowell's season high of 253.

Nettles, ninth Minnesota player to hit homers in four consecutive games, matched ex-Twin Jimmie Hall's club record of five in that span.

The American League's top three sluggers also homered. Frank Howard, the major league leader, slammed No. 40 in Washington's 6-2 victory over Baltimore; Boston's Ken Harrelson cracked No. 34 in a 6-4 10-inning nod over Oakland and Detroit's Willie Horton hit No. 33 as the League leaders pounded California 6-0 behind Mickey Lolich's two-hitter.

In the National League, Los Angeles staggered first-place St. Louis 10-1; Philadelphia outscored Pittsburgh 8-7 in 15 innings and Atlanta nipped San Francisco 2-1. A scheduled twilight doubleheader between Houston and Cincinnati was rained out.

Tiant, who had won only one game... and completed none... since Aug. 10, stymied the Twins after Nettles' first inning homer. He struck out the side three times and fanned 14 through the seventh before tapering off.

The 27-year-old Cuban ace is Cleveland's first 20-game winner since 1962, when Dick Donovan made the charmed circle. Detroit's Denny McLain, Baltimore's Dave McNally, St. Louis' Bob Gibson and San Francisco's Juan Marichal also have won 20 or more this year.

Howard helped the lowly Senators drop second-place Baltimore eight games off the pace with a bases-empty homer in the third after Ken McDowell's three-run first-inning shot shook up loser Gene Brabender.

Rookie Gary Holman added a two-run pinch single in the seventh as Washington snapped a five-game losing streak.

Harrelson and Reggie Smith tagged 10th-inning homers off Oakland reliever Diego Segui after helping the Red Sox send the game into overtime. Both singled and scored on Russ Gibson's eighth-inning double, tying it 4-4.

Lolich, 14-9, limited the Angels to a third-inning single by Aurelio Rodriguez and an eighth-inning double by Tom Saltriano as Detroit reduced its pennant magic number to 10.

Horton hit a two-run homer in the first inning and Mickey Stanley and Al Kaline smacked successive solo shots in the third, chasing California starter Dennis Bennett.

Benvenuti to Meet Don Fulmer

TORONTO (AP) — The manager of middleweight boxing champion Nino Benvenuti of Italy says he will go to New York later this week to arrange a title bout with Don Fulmer.

The New York State Athletic Commission ordered Benvenuti Monday to sign for a title defense against Fulmer or another "suitable opponent" by Sept. 29 or face suspension or possible loss of his crown.

"Fulmer? That's the first I've heard of this," said Bruno Amaduzzi, Benvenuti's manager. "But we'll fight Fulmer, I don't have any date in mind, but I would like to hold the fight in Madison Square Garden."

Edwin Dooley, chairman of the New York commission, said Fulmer, of West Jordan, Utah, had sent a $2,000 forfeit check and a challenge to the commission.

11 District Teams See Action

Div. 4AA football opened the season this past weekend with eleven of the conference's teams seeing action. Only two sectional conference games were included in the first week of play. Fairview's defending champion Cardinals downed Texarkana (Washington) 27-0 in 4AA East, and Magnolia's Panthers defeated Warren 13-0 in 4AA West.

Other results: Camden 40 Lincoln (Camden) 12; Smackover 6 Norphlet 0; Crossett 12 Eudora 0; Hope 0 Ashdown 7; Washington (El Dorado) 0 El Dorado 14; Malvern 0 Hot Springs 13; Arkadelphia was open.

In action this week: Fairview at Camden; Lincoln at Crossett; Magnolia at Haynesville, La.; Smackover at Washington (El Dorado) on Saturday (C) Washington (Texarkana) at Arkadelphia (C) Hope at Prescott; Monticello at Warren; Malvern open.

There were not too many surprises in the opening round of games. The major notable aspect was that all three of the new member schools lost in their first encounter with established members.

A total of sixteen players scored touchdowns but only quarterback Lewis Pryor of Fairview had two TDs. In fact, quarterbacks had a good night as six signal callers scored touchdowns.

Fairview and Magnolia, both winners of sectional games, showed their defense to be tough. Fairview allowed a total net yardage of 58 yards (5 rushing and 53 passing) and Magnolia allowed a total net yardage of 51 yards (56 rushing and 15 passing). Camden led the offensive teams with the 274 yards rushing. Fairview had 217 and Crossett 201. Crossett had 96 yards passing.

Joe Gordon Takes Over the Royals

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Joe Gordon's first job as manager of the Kansas City Royals will be intensive study of scouting reports aimed at the Oct. 15 expansion draft, which will furnish the players he will have in 1969.

Unlike some other expansion managers in the past, Gordon won't be starting with nothing. The Royals have about 70 players under contract at Corning, N.Y., Dubuque, Iowa, and Highpoint-Thomasville, N.C.

Fred Haney had only a matter of days between the granting of the California Angels franchise at St. Louis in December, 1960, and selection of players which formed the nucleus of baseball's most successful expansion club. One of Haney's assistants, Cedric Tallis, is now executive vice president of the Royals.

"There will be a lot of guessing because quite a few players will be available," Gordon said. "But we'll be ready. Cedric, Charley Metro and Lou Gorman have done a great job setting things up. I know our scouts have done a terrific job in the past few months and I'm going to take a lot of time studying their reports on the available players."

Golfers Still in Deep Coma

HONOLULU (AP) — Golfer Ted Makalela remained in deep coma early today, more than 20 hours after he was found floating face down in shallow water off Kihio Beach in Waikiki.

It was still undetermined whether Makalela, 34, who won the Hawaiian Open Golf Tournament in 1966, hit his head on hard-packed sand while diving or suffered some sort of seizure.

Altitude Has Little to Do With Running

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — Altitude means hardly a thing when you're running—even if you're running for half an hour—says Tracy Smith. It's not likely he'll ever convince Billy Mills.

Smith, a slender 23-year-old Army Pfc, had things all his own way Monday when he handily won the 10,000-meter run at the U.S. Olympic track and field trials and won a trip to Mexico City next month.

The second and third finishers — Van Nelson and Tom Laris — also earned berths on the team, but Mills, the top U.S. star of the Olympics four years ago, was denied another trip when he finished a lackluster and painful fourth.

In addition, another top hopeful for a gold medal in a distance race, Gerry Lindgren, missed in his bid to make the team in the 10,000 and will have to settle for a crack at a 5,000-meter berth. And it's farm from a clinch that he'll make it.

Running at high altitude—the Echo Summit ski resort near here is 7,377 feet above sea level, 28-feet higher than Mexico City—is nothing new to Smith. He has trained for two years at his parents' fishing lodge in Southern California, running each day at altitudes between 8,400 and 9,200 feet.

"It gave me a big psychological lift," said Smith, who is 5-foot-11 and weighs 158 pounds. "I had a lot more left."

Smith, who finished in 30:00.4, a less than brilliant time, said that when Mills dropped out of contention near the end of the race, he thought about settling for third.

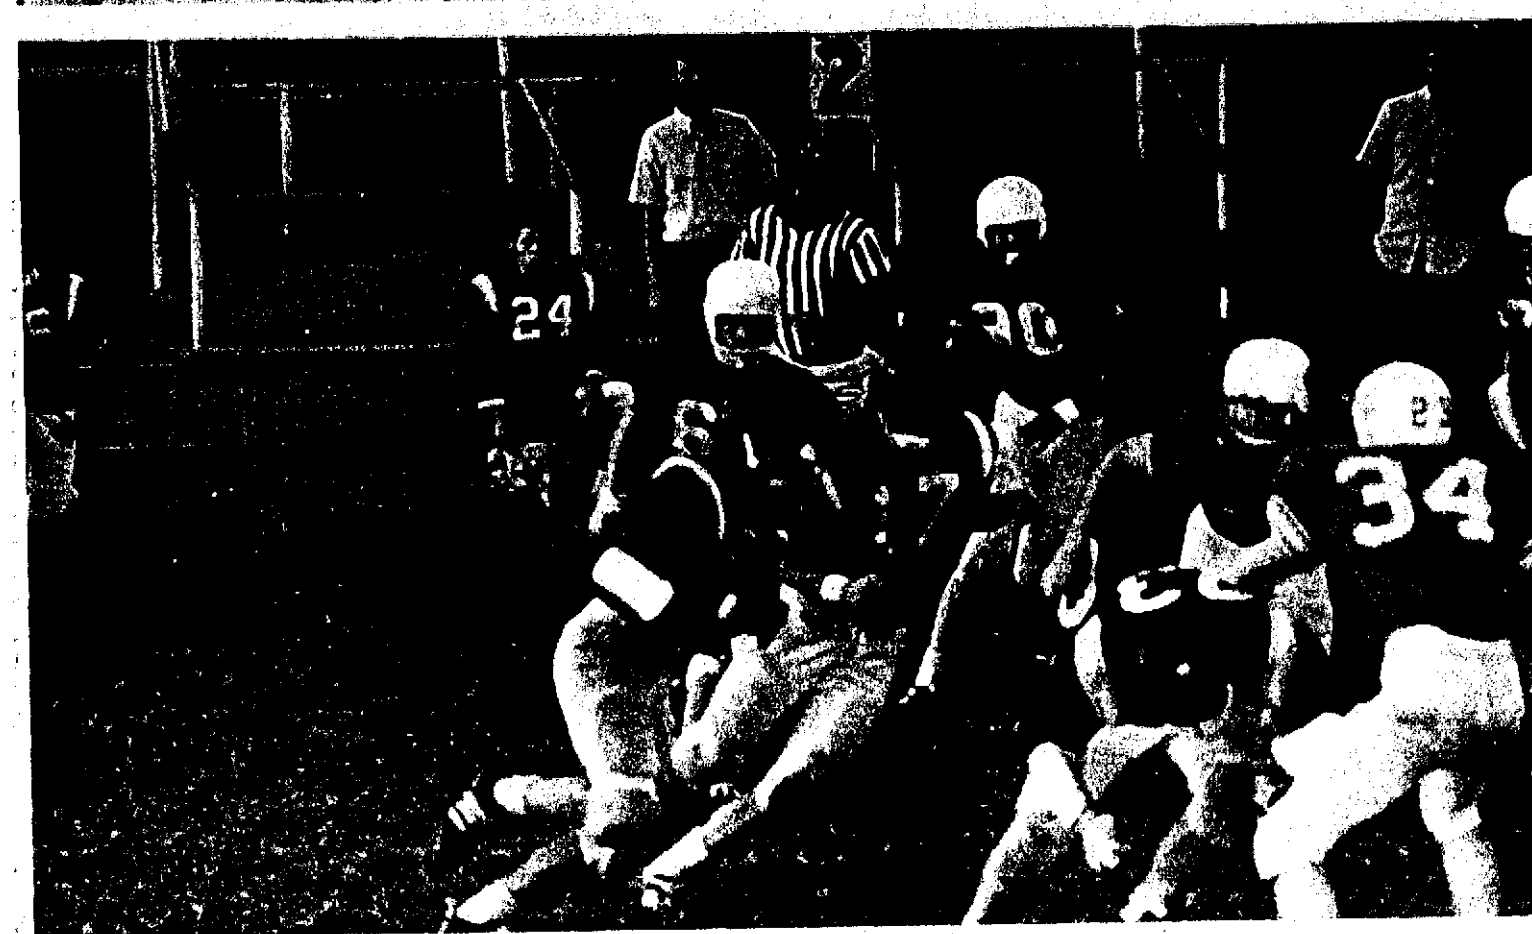

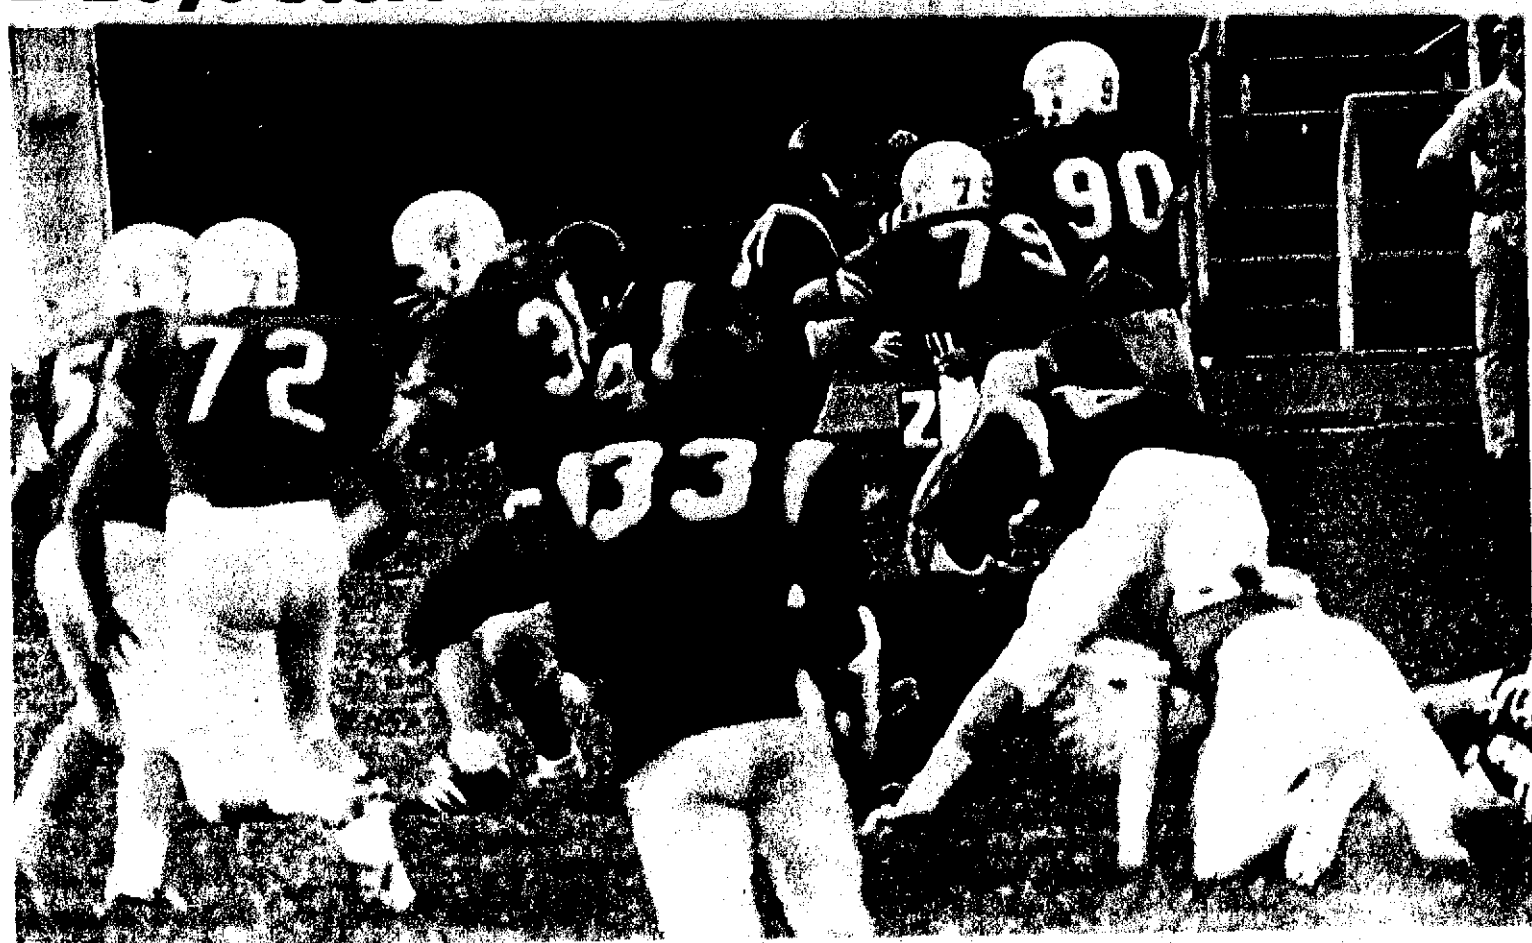

"But people expected me to win," he said, so he passed Laris with one-half lap to go and sprinted home the winner. Smith said he will try to earn a berth in the 5,000 and double at Mexico.

The 5,000 now represents Lindgren's last hope and he first must get past the trials on Wednesday—which he can do by running 14:45 or better—and then come in among the first three in the finals on Friday.

Lindgren, who was fifth, had little to say except "I didn't have the feeling."

Mills had previously tried to qualify for the team in the Marathon, but was kept out by a painful side injury and he said it cropped up again, bothering him along with the altitude.

Kicking Has Proved Its Point

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Pro Football's Press Point Experiment has had its run—and proved its point.
There no longer is any doubt that it is easier to kick a conversion than add on a point-after-touchdown by passing or running from the two-yard line.
And by proving that point, the experiment has opened the door to a small controversy in which players, coaches and owners are beginning to line up with for or against the rule, basically along similar lines.
Those in favor of the rule feel it adds excitement to the game and is a device that will eliminate ties. Those opposed to the rule feel it adds danger to an already dangerous profession and that it cheapens the touchdown.
The rule was adopted by the American and National football leagues for use in interleague exhibition games and abolished the traditional conversion kick, making it mandatory that teams either pass or run from the two-yard line to get their extra point.
The point was simple: The conversion kick was becoming too automatic, with AFL and NFL kickers succeeding about 98 per cent of the time, and consequently a dull play.
With the Pressure Point in use during the 23 exhibition games, there were 97 extra-point attempts by running or passing, 55 successful and 42 that failed—or 56.6 per cent made.
Breaking that down further: Of the 97 attempts, 62 were by passing and 35 by running, with the average for success just about the same. Of the passing attempts, 35 were successful, 27 failed—for 56.5 per cent. Of the running attempts, 20 were successful, 15 failed—for 57.1 per cent.
And that's where it all stands now. For the regular season, all experiments are off, with the AFL and NFL using their existing rules.
But there's little doubt that this experiment will get more laboratory time in the future. That's as certain as the conversion kick is automatic.

Those Days Gone Forever

HONOLULU (AP) — The days when islanders could boast that the temperature never goes over 90 may be gone forever.
When temperatures reached 91 on Monday, this became Honolulu's hottest summer ever—with 52 days of 90-degree-or-above temperatures. In 1966, there were 51 days with 90 or above temperatures and in 1967 there were 49 such days.
In 1961, there were only two days of 90 or above readings.

Montgomery Goes to First Unit

FAYETTEVILLE, Ar (AP) — The University of Arkansas has three quarterbacks on the first team according to Monday's depth chart.
Bill Montgomery, a sophomore who had been running the second team, was elevated to the first unit. Gordon Norwood and John Eichler who had both been listed as first-teamers, remained on the No. 1 unit.
Montgomery passed for two touchdowns and directed two other touchdown drives in Saturday's scrimmage.
Coach Frank Broyles said films of the scrimmage had revealed "a lot of glaring mental and assignment mistakes."
"The films showed how far we have to go in two weeks," Broyles said. The Razorbacks open Sept. 21 at Little Rock against Oklahoma State University.

State Going With Marked Tree QB

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — James Hamilton, a freshman redshirt from Marked Tree, will be the starting quarterback Saturday when the Arkansas State University Indians take on Western Michigan at Kalamazoo, Mich.
"The team has accepted him as a leader and I feel he'll do us a good job," said coach Bennie Ellender. Hamilton is a 6-foot-2, 193-pounder.
Cecil LaGrone, a sophomore who started five games last season, and Bubba Crocker, a junior college transfer, are ASU's other two quarterbacks.
Salazar said the team that year suffered 147 injuries, a club record.

The B boys of Hope defeated the Camden B team 8 to 6 last night in a thriller that saw a Hope lineman pick up a loose ball and ramble for the winning tally.
The pictures show the action in the contest. Camden is wearing the real dark jerseys.

Pro Charts

—BY MURRAY OLDERMAN—
NFL EAST: Capitol Division—Washington

PROSPECTUS—"A lot of our season," admits Otto Graham, "depends on Sonny. He throws the best of anybody in football." Sonny is Jurgensen, and he had calcium deposits cut out of his right elbow. Coach Graham professes not to be concerned. At this stage of the game, he insists he'd rather settle for a couple of defensive linemen he could be sure of. And a defensive leader to replace Sam Huff wouldn't hurt. Redskins problem is not so much moving ball as keeping other team from moving it. PREDICTION—Second in Capitol Division.

Otto Graham

OFFENSE

PASSING—Assuming Jurgensen's O.K. once the competition gets earnest, the Redskins have merely the best. It's there in black and white, too. Sonny led NFL last year in virtually every passing category. But if he's not O.K., well—there's rusty Jim Ninowski, plus young Gary Beban. Rating—A—

RECEIVING—So many good hands available they could afford to switch Bobby Mitchell to running back, and he's merely leading active receiver in football. Jerry Smith goes from tight end to split end; nonpareil Charley Taylor is alone at flanker. Ding-dong rivalry at tight end among resurgent Pat Richter, rugged Marlin McKeever and surprise rookie Ken Borefoot. Rating—A—

RUNNING—Same old painful problem, which is why 33-year-old Mitchell is starting all over again. Maybe Ray McDonald will settle down and put his 248 pounds to full use. Some hope for a rookie, Bob Bruner. And they're still got such pluggers as A. D. Whitfield, Gerry Allen, Steve Thurlow to fill out the roster. Rating—B—

LINE—The one important addition is John Wooten, who got embroiled in socio-political problems at Cleveland and was signed as free agent. He could step into a guard spot, though there is nothing wrong with incumbents Vince Promuto, Ray Schoenke, and Graham has some ideas of swinging him at tackle, too, to help out Mitch Johnson, Jim Snowden. Len Hauss makes an excellent hub at center. Rating—B+

DEFENSE

LINE—This is where changes are expected, though all of last year's front four reported back to camp. Couple of new boys, Dennis Crain and Frank Bosch, have made strong impression at tackles. Spain Musgrove and Willie Adams, reserves year ago, should be ready to move up. At least, Otto can't complain about lack of bodies. And don't count out such old friends as Joe Rutgeas, Carl Kommerer. Rating—B—

LINEBACKING—You start with a strong one, Chris Hearnberger, on the right side and go downhill from there. Ed Bradley or Jim Carroll will take the place of Sam Huff in the middle. Sid Williams is trying to ward off rookie Tommy Rousell on the left side. They will never be mistaken for Green Bay trio. Rating—C+

SECONDARY—New look is imminent here, too, with pick-up of Pat Fischer and Jimmy Byrnes from Cardinals to play the corners, though in the long run it will be top draftee Jim (Yagoo) Smith moving into a regular job. Rickie Harris has pretty well moved in as the free safety (since Paul Krause was shipped away), and Brig Owens stays on as his mate unless someone stronger comes along. Rating—B—

KICKING—It Charley Gololok stays away from soccer balls, the Skies will have the type of place-kicking that would have reversed a couple of games last year. If they can afford to keep another specialist, Mike Bragg will usurp Pat Richter's punting role. Rating—B+

Field Goals Win for the KC Chiefs

HOUSTON (AP) — Jan Stenerud kicked four field goals and the Kansas City Chiefs won their American Football League opener from the Oilers Monday night.

The victory was achieved, however, only after the Chiefs halted a fourth-quarter Houston uprising, led by quarterback Pete Beathard.

The Chiefs won 26-21 but saw Beathard cut a 19-point Houston deficit with two touchdown passes while missing two others.

Stenerud booted fourth period field goals of 33, 26 and 32 yards to contribute to Kansas City's 26-7 lead.

Houston, held to only 29 yards rushing the first two quarters, caught fire with 11 minutes left in the game. Beathard passed on practically every down, connecting with Sid Blanks, Ode Burrell and Mac Halk.

Beathard completed 23 of 48 passes for 412 yards. The Oilers gained only 55 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs gained 204 rushing with Mike Garrett picking up 53 yards in eight attempts. Len Dawson completed 10 of 18 passes for 78 yards.

National Football League teams, meanwhile, completed the job of trimming their rosters to the 40 players allowed when the season opens this weekend.

Most prominent among those cut was defensive back Ross Fichtner, signed as a free agent by New Orleans after being dropped by Cleveland in the wake of a racial incident.

Fichtner, who is white, was a starting safetyman for the Browns until they dropped him and guard John Wooten. The moves stemmed from a golf tournament arranged by Fichtner to which the Browns' Negro players were not invited. Wooten is now with Washington.

Paul Flately, the NFL's rookie of the year in 1963 when he caught 51 passes for Minnesota, was among four players released by the Vikings. The Green Bay Packers placed Ben Wilson, leading rusher in the Super Bowl, on the injured waiver list.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Prevention of Frostbite More Effective Than Cure

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I work for a frozen food company. In the freezer room, which is kept at 0 degrees, I take off my gloves to open the cartons. The fingers of my right hand are always cold and numb even when I'm off duty. Is there any remedy for this?

A—Prevention is more effective than attempts to remedy the chronic numbness brought on by continued exposure to frostbite. Every effort should be made to protect your hands. Why not wear your gloves and use instruments to open the cartons? It also helps to avoid the use of tobacco.

Q—My arms get numb at night even when I'm not lying on them. My doctor says I have an extra or cervical rib that is pressing on the artery leading to my arms. He advises having the rib removed. I would like your opinion.

A—A rib attached to one of the vertebrae of the neck is usually found on only one side and is seen more often in women than in men. Numbness of the affected side is a common result and is best treated by removal of the extra rib.

Q—My fingers feel numb. My doctor says it is poor circulation. What can I do for it?

A—There are various causes of impaired circulation. They can't all be treated in the same way. One of the commonest causes is hardening of the arteries. If this is the cause in your case, you should avoid smoking. Large doses of niacin may also be helpful. A wide variety of other drugs is used, depending on individual circumstances.

Q—What would cause a painless tingling sensation just above my knee?

A—Tingling in any part of the body indicates an irritation of the sensory nerves supplying the part. The cause of the irritation may be obvious but more often is hard to find.

Q—How does myeloma affect a person? Is there any cure?

A—In this disease, tumors form in the bone marrow of the ribs, vertebral column, collarbone or skull and cause pain, anemia and collapse of the involved bones, especially the ribs and spine. Such pre-scription drugs as melphalen (Alkeran) and urethane are given for relief but as yet no

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

There are now over 300 U.S. wildlife sanctuaries encompassing more than 28 million acres. The World Almanac says. President Theodore Roosevelt established the first national wildlife preserve in 1903 at Pelican Island, Fla. Although a modest three-acre area of sand and mangrove trees, Pelican Island has aided the survival of brown pelicans, cormorants, egrets, anhingas and ibises.

Waging War on Car Stickers

FT. CARSON, Colo. (AP) — The Army is waging a defoliation campaign against Flower Power car stickers on the Ft. Carson reservation.

The adhesive-backed plastic or paper flower stickers have got to go under terms of a recent order, military police said. Psychedelic paint jobs also are taboo. But racing stripes are permitted.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Skillful Play Makes Contract

By Oswald and James Jacoby

Q—The bidding has been:

West North East South
1 ♠ Pass 3 N.T.
Pass 4 ♠ Pass 4 N.T.
Pass 5 ♠ Pass ?

You, South, hold:

♠ J 4 ♥ K J 9 8 ♠ A 2 ♠ K Q 10 5 4

What do you do now?

A—Bid five hearts. This is a specialized Blackwood bid that tells partner to bid five no-trump. This should make but you miss two aces and six is out of the question.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding five diamonds to show one ace, your partner bids five spades to show three aces. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

SHORT RIBS

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL MORNING!

...UP...DOWN...UP...DOWN...UP...DOWN...

West didn't bid four spades with any idea that he would make the contract. He knew that he couldn't go down more than three tricks and probably not more than two. In any event he had 100 honors to cut down the penalty.

Actually he would only have been set one trick because all he would lose would be two hearts and his minor suit singletons.

Most players would have doubled with the North hand but North was pretty sure that his partner had raised to three no-trump with a long minor suit as his secret weapon. In that case North felt that his partner might well be able to make the minor suit game.

South figured out just what was in his partner's mind. Obviously North did not have anything in spades, otherwise he would have doubled four spades. In that case all North's cards would be working for South so South bid five diamonds.

East doubled on general principles. He felt that if South could make five diamonds he was entitled to get double price.

West held the first trick with the king of spades. Had he shifted to a heart he would have beaten the contract but West saw no reason to lead anything but a second spade.

This gave South a chance to make the hand and he proceeded to do so. He ruffed in, cashed the ace of trumps, led a trump to dummy's king, ruffed dummy's last spade just in case East held another to lead, led a trump to his Wisconsin.

—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., says Humphrey and his running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, "are best equipped to handle the problems facing the nation." Kennedy said he'll have more to say about the campaign as time goes on.
Humphrey, expressing optimism over exploratory peace talks in Paris, told a group of Philadelphia students Monday he believes "substantive negotiations" may begin before the U.S. presidential inauguration in January.

He also said "I can safely predict" that barring unusual developments the United States will be able to begin removing some troops from Vietnam while peace negotiations are still under way.
"But I would think negotiations or no negotiations," he said, "we could start to remove some of the American forces in early 1969 or late 1968."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk disagreed in Washington that the timing of U.S. troop reductions could be forecast at this time.
Humphrey claimed Nixon's statement that he has doubts about some provisions of the treaty against spread of nuclear weapons while supporting it in principle demonstrates "a confusion" and the kind of world leadership Nixon would bring.

Nixon's statement on Blafra urged President Johnson to give all the imagination, attention and energy he can muster to the problem and said this is no time to "go through channels or observe the diplomatic niceties."

That was a reference to blocks by both the Nigerian and secessionist Biafra governments against shipment of food to the starving Biafrans. Referring to America's wealth and power, Nixon said:

"There is no better case in which we might invest that power than in sparing the lives of innocent men and women and children who are otherwise doomed."

Bernard Denies Soliciting Out-of-State

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A charge that Charles Bernard of Earle, the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, was soliciting campaign funds from out of state brought an almost immediate denial Monday from Bernard.

The charge was made by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the incumbent Bernard is attempting to unseat.

Fulbright said some literature he had received was very similar to letters H.L. Hunt of Dallas had written in newspapers.

"I have never met or talked with H.L. Hunt," said Bernard in a prepared statement. "He is not involved in my campaign whatsoever."

Bernard said Fulbright's statement was a "mud-slinging tactic not in keeping with his position as a U.S. senator."

The Republican candidate also said that an organization called a Council for Livable World had previously supported Fulbright. He called the organization a "very liberal out-of-state group."

Fulbright also said, in an informal news conference, that the literature used in the Bernard campaign resembled that used by Jim Johnson, one of the three persons Fulbright defeated July 30 in the Democratic primary.

The letter, which was signed by Robert Webb, state finance chairman of the Bernard campaign, said Bernard was attempting to raise $100,000 within 17 days to "beat the Fulbright people in reserving prime radio and television time we must have to win."

Fulbright's defeat, according to the literature, would "strike a resounding chord for freedom loving people throughout the world."

Fulbright said he had received the letters from Virginia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Florida and Washington, D.C.

Fulbright said he could not assess his race with Bernard yet because he knew "relatively little" about him. He also expressed confidence that he would win but added, "any campaign is trouble."

The junior senator also defended his stand on the Vietnam war.

"I believe the people are disillusioned with that (the war) and I'm hopeful of a negotiated settlement," he said. He discounted the theory that the stoppage of the bombing of North Vietnam would necessarily endanger U.S. troops in the field.

Berkeley Has Completed Integration

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The public schools of Berkeley became fully integrated today as the city starts busing some 3,500 grade school children up and down the hills, to and from Negro and white neighborhoods.

The children will be carried in 25 buses.
"We consider this the first and most thorough of all school integration systems of significant size in the country," said Dr. Dan Freudenthal, coordinator of research and publications for the Berkeley Board of Education.

Berkeley, home of the University of California has about 110,000 residents.

Junior and senior high schools were integrated in Berkeley four years ago. Controversy that ensued at the start of desegregation plans has been overcome, Freudenthal said.

Some 9,000 grade school children attend Berkeley schools—41 per cent Negro, about 50 per cent white, the rest Oriental and other races. Ultimately, all the pupils will be involved in the busing, since during some periods the children will live close enough to their assigned schools to walk, while at other times their schools will require a bus.

At the start of their school careers, the children of all races will attend the 11 elementary schools in the mostly white sections in the Berkeley Highlands.

From the fourth through sixth grades, the pupils will be bused to schools in the Negro sections in the flatlands.

The interest generated by the Berkeley grade school integration plan created a special situation for opening day.

Reporters were permitted to ride on buses with the children, enter schools, check in with principals and talk to teachers in class.

Eight months were spent preparing the system's 397 teachers for the change, and readying the community for the system.

Freudenthal said problems are expected, but he adds, "We will cope. We're ready to move."

Freudenthal said that general opposition to busing under the new grade school plan "has faded out" since failure in 1964 of attempts to block desegregation of junior and senior high schools in Berkeley.

Mushroom War Continues

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — The great puffball mushroom war continues in Colorado. It started last week with the discovery of a mushroom weighing 7½ pounds.

Then as new troops moved into the field, mushrooms weighing 8½, 9½ and even 11 pounds were found.

The current record, however, is held by Jerry Franz, 34, of Pueblo, who discovered a 14½ pound puffball in Pueblo Mountain Park over the weekend.

Strategy Is Win Negro Vote in South

By BILL BOYARSKY
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's Southern strategy calls for him to try to win Negro votes while cutting down support for George C. Wallace.

"We have to try and get our share of the black vote while minimizing Wallace's," said an adviser to the Republican presidential candidate.

Nixon's strategists talked of the South as the former vice president prepared to leave Wednesday on another coast-to-coast trip that will take him into North Carolina, Louisiana, the Midwest and California.

Nixon scheduled a private meeting today with his business advisory group before having dinner with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who opposed him for the presidential nomination, but who now supports him.

They meet at the governor's Pocantico Hills estate. Afterward, Nixon will speak to a rally in suburban White Plains, N.Y.

Nixon's strategists say that Wallace, the American Independent party candidate, will attract votes in Southern areas that supported Republican Barry Goldwater for president in 1964.

As evidence of how important Nixon aides consider the Wallace vote, one adviser said: "In every Southern district, the combined Nixon vote and Wallace vote is going to be over half" of the votes cast.

The Nixon camp views North Carolina, one of the states on this week's tour, with optimism. Advisers cite figures they say show the GOP has been making steady gains over the past few years.

But in Louisiana, they say it will be difficult for Nixon to duplicate the feat of Dwight D. Eisenhower, who carried the heavily Democratic state in 1956, and Goldwater, who did it eight years later.

One Nixon aide said that in North Carolina, "the Wallace vote will be strong, how strong we don't know."

But he cited what the Nixon camp considers the strong governorship campaign of Republican Rep. James Gardner and steady GOP gains in registration to bolster the Nixon cause.

In Louisiana, Nixon aides said a weak Republican organization will hurt the campaign, but they said they are counting on Louisiana Democrats to break their ranks once again and help Nixon carry the state.

Nixon's Midwest stops will include Indianapolis, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio, and then Santa Barbara, Calif., on Saturday, before traveling eastward again.

Wisconsin—Democratic Sen. Gaylord Nelson is unopposed in his party's primary while State Sen. Jerris Leonard has the Republican party endorsement over three rivals.

Republican Gov. Warren P. Knowles is unopposed as he seeks renomination to a third term. Bronson C. La Follette, 32, heir to the state's famous political name, is expected to take the Democratic nomination.

Maryland—Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster has three opponents but is favored to win while U.S. Rep. Charles McC. Mathias is expected to dominate in a GOP field of three.

Utah—Sen. Wallace F. Bennett faces a challenge in the GOP primary from Mark Anderson, a former John Birch Society official. The Democratic contests is between Atty. Gen. Phil Hansen and State Development Director Milt Wellen-mann.

Democratic Gov. Calvin L. Rampton is unopposed for renomination and Buehner, a businessman, and Lamar Rawlings, former Salt Lake County auditor.

Minnesota—No Senate or gubernatorial contests and only two of eight U.S. representatives are opposed for renomination.

Rhode Island—No Senate term expiring and no contest in either party's gubernatorial primary. Incumbent Gov. John H. Chafee and Democrat Frank Licht, a former Superior Court judge, are the candidates.

Colorado—Incumbent Republican Sen. Peter M. Dominick is unopposed and former Gov. Steve McNichols and State Rep. Kenneth Monfort vie for the Democratic Senate nomination.

14 Held in Kentucky Race Battle

By BOB COOPER
Associated Press Writer
RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) —

Fourteen men have been ordered held on charges of murder in an interracial gun battle Labor Day during which one white man and one Negro were killed.

The defendants, eight whites and six Negroes, appeared Monday at an examining trial before Madison County Judge Robert Turley in this small eastern Kentucky community.

Turley ordered the men held in Madison County jail and to appear Oct. 23 before a county grand jury.

The examining trial, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to hold persons for grand jury action, was held Monday in two successive sessions. The first, was for the white defendants, the other for the Negro men.

Most of the white men say they are members of the National States' Rights party, an extreme right-wing group that says its goal is a white Christian America without Jews or Negroes.

The Negro defendants are residents of Berea, a community near Richmond. The shooting took place there in a vacant lot.

The white defendants are from Ohio, Georgia and Kentucky.

Only about 60 persons were permitted in the courtroom during the examining trial and those who entered were searched for weapons. Police stood guard at the courtroom doors and outside around the court building.

None of the defendants testified.

State trooper John Nixon said that one of the States' Rights party members told him that the Negroes fired first in the 10-minute gun battle. But another trooper, Homer Baker, testified that a Negro defendant told him that the white men began the firing.

Nixon also testified that 14 weapons—rifles, shotguns and pistols—were seized after the shooting stopped and the men were rounded up.

Killed were Elza V. Rucker, 30, of Lexington, Ky., and Leno J. Boggs, 32, of Berea.

Rucker was identified as a sergeant-at-arms for the party.

The outbreak followed a speech by one of the defendants, the Rev. Connie Lynch of Savannah, Ga., at a public rally held by the party at the former used car lot.

Some people in the neighborhood have said the firing began after the party members taunted Negro passersby. Others have said that the Negroes provoked the shooting.

A day after the two men were killed, at least two biracial committees were formed to prevent further occurrences and the Berea Common Council adopted a resolution "denouncing hate groups such as the National States' Rights party" and said such groups were not welcome in the community.

George D. Aiken has opposition from a political unknown, William K. Tufts of Bethel, No. Democratic candidate.

L. Gov. John J. Daley is unopposed for the Democratic nomination to succeed Democratic Gov. Philip H. Hoff. James L. Cakes and Deane C. Davis seek the GOP gubernatorial nod.

Russellville Housing Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — A loan of $611,370 to buy and rehabilitate 58 homes for low-rent use in Russellville has been approved by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Rep. John Paul Ham-merschmidt, R-Ark., made the announcement Monday.

tain raw materials to Czechoslovakia.

Meanwhile, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov returned to Prague after a visit to Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. A report that his talks with Slovak Communist party chief Gustav Husak had been "cordial" raised the prospect that Moscow has bigger things in mind for Husak.

The report by the official news agency CTK gave no details, but the term "cordial" indicated Kuznetsov and Husak found common ground.

"This contrasted with the official description of 'frank and comradely'—meaning disagreement—used for Kuznetsov's talks with Ondrej Klokoc, chairman of the Slovak National Council, and earlier with President Ludvik Svoboda, Premier Cernik and national Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek.

Kuznetsov came to Czechoslovakia Friday amid complaints in the Soviet press that liberal Czechoslovak leaders were not moving swiftly enough to conform to Moscow's demands that the liberal reforms of the past months be rolled back.

Husak's public statements have received favorable attention in Russian newspapers. He has advocated steps to prevent Czechoslovak refugees from fleeing the country and is the only Czechoslovak official so far to mention "counterrevolutionary forces" in his speeches. The Kremlin says Soviet troops moved into Czechoslovakia Aug. 20 to save communism here from counterrevolution.

Reports from the Austrian border showed increased Czechoslovak security measures, and one unconfirmed report said border guards fired bursts from machine pistols to stop three persons trying to slip across the border.

Jan Peinar, the new interior minister, told a news conference in Prague: "We are able to insure peace and quiet and thus prove to the troops of the Warsaw Pact that it is not necessary for them to intervene in our affairs."

Mental Health Center Planned
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A $3.7-million mental health center is planned in predominantly Negro downtown Los Angeles to deal with "social-cultural illness" and poverty.

Dr. J. Alfred Cannon, neuropsychiatrist at the University of California at Los Angeles, announced plans Monday for the seven-story center at the site of the old Wrigley Park baseball field. The city is leasing 4.3 acres for $1 a year.

Cannon said the center will reject therapy "based on Freudian models relating to white, middle class values."

He said the center, to be built in 1969.

Congressmen Who Welsh Should Be Defeated

Obnoxious to the storm signals that should tell him his party is about to be buried under a Republican landslide President Johnson proposed over the week-end one more monumental double-cross in an administration already infamous for double-dealing.

The President this summer made a deal with the Congress, promising that if the Congress would enact a 10-per-cent increase in income taxes he would cut federal expenditures by 6 billion dollars. But this week-end Mr. Johnson welshed on his promise and announced to the press he would ask Congress to reduce the expense cut to only 5 billion.

He says the 6-billion reduction imposes "unforeseen difficulties" upon his bureaucrats. No doubt it does. And the President has more regard for his political henchmen than for the taxpaying public to whom the 10-per-cent hike in income taxes also spells out "unforeseen difficulties."

No one incident in recent American history points up so graphically the need for a complete purge of the Washingtonians — grown careless, dishonest, and impudent because of many years in public office — and all signs point to a major Democratic disaster in November.

Mr. Johnson's appeal for leniency in expense-cutting checks the immediate issue to the Congress. But it's Congress that the people will be watching.

You should watch the votes of individual congressmen. Any man who votes to continue the 10-per-cent increase in income taxes but reducing the amount the government has to cut expenses should be scratched on the November ballot.

Circumstances have advised President Johnson — correctly — that it is time to retire from public life.

And your votes in November will write the same verdict for congressmen who attempt to go along with him in this outrageous maneuver for the privileged office-holding class and against the non-privileged taxpaying public.

Denys Land Deal With Van Dalsem

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Land Commissioner Sam Jones said there was not a land deal between himself and former state Rep. Paul Van Dalsem as charged by Ed Allison of Blytheville.

Allison, a Republican, opposes Jones, a Democrat, in the Nov. 5 general election.

Allison charged Saturday that Van Dalsem received a deed to 152 acres of land for less than one-half cent an acre. He said the transaction occurred in 1962.

Jones said the transaction Allison made reference to occurred in 1961. He said a change in the course of the Arkansas River had created the 152 acres which he called "accretion land."

"Mr. Allison would make a hell of a land commissioner if he has no more conception of the law than that," Jones said. "We were legally bound under state law to issue the deed. Mr. Van Dalsem nor any other politician has ever received any preferential treatment from the land office in the past 12 years."

Arthur Kelley, Perry County surveyor, stated in an affidavit that Van Dalsem "cleared and farmed" the land in 1938. Kelley said the U.S. Corps of Engineers had changed the river's course and that the land had become an island.

Liquor Vote in Greene County

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — Persons in St. Francis Township (Greene County) will vote Nov. 5 on whether the sale of liquor can legally continue in the township.

Greene County Judge J. P. Reed ruled Monday that petitions from the township, containing about 100 signatures, met the requirements necessary to place the issue on the general election ballot.

Petitions for Local Option Vote Filed

Petitions were filed yesterday with the Hempstead County Clerk's office calling for a local option liquor election to be placed on the November 5 general election ballot.

The names on the petitions, over 1,500 were counted and certified by County Clerk Pat McCain. It required 15 per cent of the qualified voters to make the petitions legal. The petitions were filed Jim Pruden and Bill Ellis.

Hempstead County has been legally dry since 1946. Sale of liquor and beer was voted legal in 1932. An attempt by dry forces to vote it out in 1936 failed. The dries were successful in the 1946 election.

U.S. Says No Apology in Pueblo Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department declared today that the seizure of the U.S. Navy intelligence ship Pueblo and its crew was an illegal act and for that reason there is no cause for an apology to be made.

The statement, read by press officer Robert J. McCloskey, came after a rash of reports to the effect that the United States was planning an apology to North Korea in return for release of the men.

Other reports circulated that North Korea was demanding a personal apology from President Johnson before the crew would be freed.

The Pueblo was seized by North Korean gunboats Jan. 23 off the port of Wonsan.

Goes to Bed With the Shakes and She Gets Up With the Shakes

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — I go to bed every night, shaking, and every morning I wake up, staking.

It isn't really a case of nerves. It's a case of having a bed equipped with an automatic vibrating unit. You just flip a switch, set the timer, and it's rockabye, baby.

The thing not only puts me to sleep—it wakes me up, too. Just set the alarm, and instead of bells or buzzers at the appointed time, the mattress starts moving, announcing in its mechanical manner that I'd better get moving too.

It all started when my husband and I took a trip. All along the way we saw billboards advertising motels with beds equipped with vibrating mattresses. It sounded fascinating, but somehow the establishments having such accommodations always turned up about noon—and since we never got started in the morning until 10, this seemed a bit early to stop.

During 10 days of travel, these slumber wonders eluded us nightly, but on the final day of the trip we decided we could not return to our mundane existence without experiencing the wonder of shaking sleep.

Accordingly, we kept going that night until we finally found a motel with a magic mattress. At that point we were only about 75 miles from our home, but unknown adventure beckoned far more enticingly than

Committee Looking to Tasks Fortas Did for LBJ While on Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee mustered a quorum today for a meeting to consider President Johnson's controversial nomination of Abe Fortas as chief justice. Thirteen of the 16 members were on hand for the closed session about 25 minutes after it had been scheduled to get underway.

Before the committee was a request from Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., to re-open its hearings to investigate further "the full extent of Mr. Fortas' involvement in the operations of the executive branch while sitting as a justice of the Supreme Court."

Griffin, a leader of the opposition to confirmation of Fortas, said that fresh reports of tasks performed by Fortas for Johnson had come to light since the committee concluded its hearings on July 23.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, a committee member who supports the Fortas nomination, told newsmen that he felt Griffin's request merited consideration.

"A committee can't put itself in the position of not hearing new evidence," Dirksen said, but he told newsmen the question was whether there was enough new evidence to warrant re-opening the hearings.

He was asked whether, if the allegations of Fortas' involvement in executive affairs were true, this would change his viewpoint toward confirmation.

"I'm not sure," Dirksen replied. "It's not a matter to be dealt with lightly."

Floor sessions of the Senate were canceled for the day, depriving opponents of Fortas of one parliamentary weapon to delay action.

Under Senate rules, a committee can meet when the main body is in session only by unanimous consent.

The committee failed to muster a quorum last Wednesday when all the members opposed to Fortas stayed away.

Griffin urged committee members to reopen the hearings to determine "the full extent of Mr. Fortas' involvement in the operations of the executive branch while sitting as a justice."

300 Negro Students Arrested

URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Police arrested more than 300 Negro students at the University of Illinois today after the students smashed furniture in Illinois Union lounges and refused to leave until officials discussed housing demands with them.

Those arrested were charged with criminal trespass for refusal to vacate the south addition of the student union after the midnight closing time.

University Chancellor J.W. Peltason said representatives of his office attempted in a meeting Monday night with the students to dissuade them.

When it became clear that the climate of the meeting was such that the demands could not be discussed in a reasonable manner, Peltason said in a statement early today, he reluctantly agreed to order police to move in and "with the minimum force necessary" arrest those refusing to leave.

An estimated 120 police from Urbana, Champaign, the university, Champaign County and the state combined to make the arrests, which totaled 321 by unofficial estimate.

No one was injured in the postmidnight disturbance and except for two minor altercations all the arrests were orderly, police spokesmen said.

All those arrested had come to the university last week as the first enrollees under the university's Project 500, a program set up last spring to provide scholarships to disadvantaged youths.

The students met in the union Monday night to protest what they claimed were irregularities in housing and in university police.

Faubus Denies Endorsement of Wallace

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus denied Monday night that he had endorsed the presidential candidacy of George C. Wallace or anyone else.

Dick Smith of York, Ala., a Wallace aide, said Monday that Faubus had endorsed the third party presidential candidacy of Wallace.

"I haven't endorsed anybody," Faubus said. "Any statement to that effect would be premature and presumptuous."

Faubus was asked if he was contemplating endorsing Wallace.

"I haven't thought seriously about it," he replied. He said he would attempt to hear Wallace's speech Wednesday at Little Rock.

Smith had said that Faubus would travel across the country speaking in behalf of Wallace.

Faubus and Wallace served together on the powerful Southern Governor's Conference.

Humphrey Thinks Peace Chances Helped by the Present Nominations

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey says chances for a negotiated Vietnam peace have been helped by his and Richard M. Nixon's nomination because the North Vietnamese now know they will have little chance of winning "unusual concessions" from the next president.

"Neither of us gives any more than they are able to get in the Paris negotiations," Humphrey said Monday night aboard his campaign plane in a news conference.

It was called to clarify remarks he made earlier in Philadelphia and Denver on the possibility of U.S. troop withdrawals and on his stand on the bombing of North Vietnam.

The Vietnam issue—and vocal antiwar demonstrators—dogged Humphrey's trail in the 15-hour, coast-to-coast opener of his presidential campaign.

In Philadelphia, Denver and Los Angeles, sparse crowds of cheering light applause were drowned out by placard-waving, chanting demonstrators.

"We want the Humphrey of yesterday, not the HHH of today," read one sign in Denver and shouts of "Hell no, we won't go" and the Nazi "Sieg Heil" dominated the greeting as a union band attempted to whip up enthusiasm.

Less than 200 persons met Humphrey in Los Angeles. Of them, about 50 were demonstrators. Many of the youths were supporters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, defeated Democratic presidential candidate and they waved signs reading "remember Chicago."

Humphrey began to shake hands with supporters but one youth leaped a fence as the vice president approached him. The youth was quickly hustled away by Secret Service agents.

Humphrey was then driven to his hotel by police. He made no public statements during his arrival at the airport or hotel.

Through it all, Humphrey appeared cheerful.

The vice president tapes a television interview and speaks to aerospace workers in nearby Redondo Beach today before heading on to Houston.

The news conference on the plane resulted in some elaboration of Humphrey's statement that "we could start to remove some of the American forces (from Vietnam) in early 1969 or late 1968."

He revised an earlier statement that he "would have had no trouble in accepting" a minority Vietnam plank at the Democratic National Convention calling for an unconditional bombing halt over North Vietnam.

The prediction of troop withdrawal was made in a speech at the prediction of troop withdrawal.

Marines Uncover Arms Cache

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines killed 34 North Vietnamese troops in two clashes Monday just below the demilitarized zone and uncovered a large cache of ammunition and supplies.

Five Marines were killed and 23 wounded in the two battles within two miles of each other just north of the Marine outpost known as the Rock Pile, U.S. headquarters reported.

In a sweep through a bunker complex six miles west-southwest of the Rock Pile, the Marines uncovered more than 500 mortar and rocket rounds, 2,200 pounds of rice, medical supplies and cloth of Soviet, Czechoslovak and French origin, apparently for uniforms.

The flareup of fighting around the Rock Pile was the only significant fighting reported.

Troops of the U.S. 166th Light Infantry Brigade, operating 150 miles farther south below Da Nang, found another weapons cache that included 37 carbines and rifles, 10 rocket grenade launchers, seven machine guns and nine flame throwers.

Viet Cong and North Vietnamese shelling killed one American and nine Vietnamese and wounded 24 Vietnamese in five attacks from the northern provinces to the Mekong Delta.

The American serviceman was killed in Kontum, in the central highlands, when 17 rounds of 100-pound Russian rockets landed around the airfield, a government military headquarters and a housing area. Another target was My Tho, the chief city in the delta, where four civilians were killed and 18 wounded.

Terrorists attacked in Saigon for the 10th time since Friday. Three men in their early 20s invaded a Chinese high school shortly after noon and shot four teachers talking in a corridor. One of the teachers, Ky Hung Lam, 49, was killed. The terrorists escaped.

In the air war, U.S. pilots flew 116 missions against North Vietnam's southern panhandle Monday.

"The southward flow of men and supplies continued to be the prime targets as returning crews reported destroying or damaging 60 supply craft, 22 trucks, 11 weapons positions and 29 supply storage areas," U.S. headquarters said.

For the first time in the war, an American ground unit began leaving Vietnam for the United States. It was the 27th Marine Regiment, which was sent to Vietnam temporarily in February at the height of the Viet Cong's Tet offensive.

The 1st Brigade of the Army's 5th Mechanized Infantry Division has already arrived to replace the Leatherneck regiment.

A hundred Marines from the 27th left Da Nang today for Okinawa, en route to Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Bond Issue Needed, Says Rockefeller

By BILL SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said today that if the state is going to expand services "it must expend money and there is no way around a bond issue."

Rockefeller said at a news conference that he would propose a bond issue during his campaign for election to a second term, but he declined to specify how big the bond proposal might be.

"We are using bond issues that are helping Arkansas," he said, citing the use of Act 9 bonds and others for industrial development programs.

"The people want to know what they're paying for," the governor said. When asked if the bond issue proposal would call for financing through a tax, Rockefeller answered, "Certainly."

A newsman asked Rockefeller if a bond proposal might be for $500 million and the governor said he did not think Arkansas "is ready for anything of that size."

The Hope rate really shows up the rest of the state in the upper usage bracket.
